PROCEDURE	SUBJECT:
RS-41	TEMPORARILY EMPLOYED 90-DAY LICENSE PLATES
DESCRIPTION AND USE:
THIS PROCEDURE PROVIDES INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS TO ASSIST TAX COLLECTOR EMPLOYEES, LICENSE PLATE AGENCY EMPLOYEES, AND THE DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAY SAFETY AND MOTOR VEHICLES FOR ISSUING TEMPORARILY EMPLOYED 90-DAY REGISTRATIONS AND LICENSE PLATES.
I. PROVISIONS OF LAW: Section 320.1325, Florida Statutes, provides for a temporary registration license plate and registration certificate valid for 90 days to an applicant who is temporarily employed in this state. The temporarily employed license plate may be renewed by the individual for one additional 90-day period. A maximum of two 90-day temporarily employed license plates may be issued to the same individual within a 12-month period. This 12-month period begins the date the first plate is issued.
II. GENERAL INFORMATION: A. Temporarily employed 90-day license plates may be issued by the Division of Motorist Services or any county license plate agency. B. The license plate range of TE00000 - ZZ99999 is used for temporarily employed 90-day license plates. These plates are assigned to each agency and must be entered in the license plate inventory of FRVIS. C. A second or one additional temporarily employed license plate can be issued for an additional 90 days during a 12-month period. The same application requirements apply for a second plate. FRVIS will confirm the original issue date and the number of plates issued to the applicant to ensure that no more than two plates are issued within the same 12-month period. D. Temporarily employed 90-day license plates must be conspicuously displayed in the rear license plate bracket. For vehicles requiring front display, temporary license plates must be displayed on the front of the vehicle in the location where the metal license plate would normally be displayed. No other license plate should be displayed on a motor vehicle that is displaying a temporarily employed 90-day license plate.
Revision(s) to this procedure: Updated the "Description and Use" section and revised item D on page 1 for consistency; removed fee amounts in item III, C, added website link to motor vehicle/mobile home class code and fee chart, and removed service fee in item VII on page 2.
